

Moana Park History Source List:

(Board of Trustees) . <https://www.renoairport.com/airport-authority/board-trustees>

Duggan, B. (2011, December 6). Moana ballpark might be benched for good. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 1.

Duggan, B. (2012, May 9). New fields of dreams under study. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. A1.

Krajewski, J. (2016, March 18). Aces outon signs. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. A1.

Louis W. Berrum dies at Moana home. (1938, June 14). Reno Evening Gazette, p. 16.

Many enjoy a bath at Moana. (1905, October 30). Reno Evening Gazette, p. 5.

Martinez, M. (2012, October 23). Moana fields honor soccer pioneer. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. A2.

Moana Flat-Fields kick-off Saturday. (2013, March 29). Retrieved June 1, 2020, from This is Reno:
<https://thisisreno.com/2013/03/moana-flat-fields-kick-off-saturday-with-soccer-game-and-ribbon-cutting/>

Obituary: George F. Hamilton. (1993, Aril 21). Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 14.

Ocean shore man to build road to Moana. (1906, October 7). Nevada State Journal, p. 3.

Reno Host Lions. (1995, January 29). Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 45.

Sneddon, S. (1985, June 2). Abnorma games, feats turn Moana into Bermuda Triangle of baseball. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 23.

Sneddon, S. (1985, June 3). Before 1960 Halloween fire, Moana was a pitcher's park. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 4B.

Sneddon, S. (1985, June 5). Moana is pressed between rich past, uncertain future. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 19.

Sneddon, S. (1994, September 17). Reno responds when baseball calls. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 52.

Sneedon, S. (1996, May 10). Reno Diamonds seeking players for '96 season. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 50.

Voyles, S. (2010, September 24). City cites many uses for Moana. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 37.

Voyles, S. (2008, July 7). Group wants to lead aquatic center fundraising. Reno Gazette-Journal, p. 3.